	Schedule produced by DS and presented to the meeting.
	The tasks of touching up the scraped paint on some of the chairs and the re-pointing of the gable end coping were the only items currently outstanding
7	Events Review
	DS has submitted bids for three adult and three children's events to Village Ventures.
	DC hoping to arrange wine tasting event in September
	Gardeners Question Time event now booked for 12 October. AC to design posters etc. Cost will be £164	AC
	Burns night ceilidh booked for 20 Jan. 2018
	Bat talk to take place on 15 July. Likely to start with a BBQ followed by talk then walk around the village. Attendance will be by ticket (£5 and free for children) as numbers for the walk will be limited to approx. 12. It is important we know who is attending so we can manage numbers going on the walk. For the BBQ we will supply burgers/sausages and salads. Attendees to bring own drinks. BG to continue to liaise with speaker	BG
	The Kurling taster sessions had gone well and it was now planned to hold a Kurling "Klub" on the 2 nd Weds of each month at 7.30. with occasional Friday	ID evenings to be arranged for those who could not make Wednesdays. JB to organize publicity. It was highlighted that we needed a whiteboard to keep score. BG had one which we could use.	JB JB reported that following discussion with the committee via email she had cancelled the talk on farriery due to take place in June. Attendance at some talks had been disappointing but reached a nadir when only 3 people attended the talk by the
